Hometown Native Opens Moving Company in Fayetteville

Appointed Agent of United Van Lines

RALEIGH, N.C. (September 25, 2008) –All American Relocation, a Raleigh, NC-based provider of global residential and commercial relocation services, has been appointed an agent of United Van Lines, the nation’s largest household goods transportation company. The appointment was announced by Steven J. Dawkins, executive vice president of United Van Lines.

“It feels good to return to my hometown and reconnect with my fellow movers and friends,” said Brett Plummer, co-owner and CEO of All American Relocation. “This opportunity comes once in a lifetime and I knew it was now or never. This community means a lot to me.”

Plummer was born and raised in Fayetteville and got his start in the moving business with McCauley Moving and Storage. He has been co-owner of All American Relocation with partner, John Potts, since 1998. Their 10th anniversary as partners was celebrated with the inaugural 2007 Mover of the Year Service Excellence Award given by the American Moving and Storage Association. United Van Lines, with headquarters in suburban St. Louis, is one of the nation’s largest household goods mover and maintains a network of 1,000 affiliated agencies in 135 countries. All American Relocation will be an extension of United offering military relocations as well as local, long distance, international and commercial relocations.
