

Sam Alvarenga of All American Relocation Named Mayflower Transit's Drive of the Year

Sam Alvarenga of All American Relocation in Charlotte was named the "Van Operator of the Year" by Mayflower Transit, for his service in the Household Goods Regional Fleet.

As Van Operator of the Year, Sam will be recognized at UniGroup's 2008 Convention being held November 5-9 at the Marriott Desert Springs Resort & Spa in Pal Desert, California. He will also receive a check for $500; a ring denoting his Van Operator of the Year accomplishment; an engraved plaque; a leather jacket, provided by Trans Advantage; a set of Van Operator of the Year decals to display on his tractor and Van Operator of the Year patches for his uniform shirts and jackets.

Areas such as quality service delivery, claims statistics, safety performance, customer relations' excellence, and operational commitment and cooperation were taken into consideration when making the final decision. Sam was chosen from more than 6,000 professionals qualified for service as Mayflower van operators.

Congratulations to Sam for being named the Best of the Best!

Terry Baker of All American Relocation Named 2008 runner-up Van Operator

Terry Baker of All American Relocation in Raleigh was named a 2008 runner-up Van Operator of the Year in the Household Goods Regional Fleet by Mayflower Transit. To recognize his achievement, he was awarded $300 from the van lines.

It is the first time in the history of the awards that the Van Operator and the runner-up have come from the same company.

